

Bridget Carlsen

Motivational Techniques & Problem Solving Seminar

December 7 & 8, 2013

Bridget Carlsen has been training dogs for over 30 years. She has put over 100 titles (and counting!) from the sports of Obedience, Field and Agility on ten Golden Retrievers and a Norwich Terrier. Her accomplishments include 6 Obedience Trial Champion (OTCH) titles, 9420 lifetime OTCH points, over 200 High in Trial (HIT) awards, over 200 High Combined (HC) awards, and multiple perfect 200 scores in both Open and Utility. She has the first and only Obedience Trial Championship (OTCH) on a Norwich Terrier, "Hemi". Bridget and Golden Retriever "Soupy" also won a placement while representing the United States in international obedience competition at Crufts in England. She has had at least one dog (and sometimes two) ranked in the AKC Top 25 All Breed Obedience Dogs in 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008. She is also an accomplished field trainer putting Master Hunter (MH) titles on five dogs.

Saturday: Motivational Techniques

Maximum 15 working spots. Unlimited auditing spots. Learn motivational techniques to engage the young dog in the learning process or to make training fun again for the experienced dog. Structure your training sessions so that the dog gets enjoyment from them. Learn how to more effectively use jackpots and training games to achieve and maintain an enthusiastic working dog.

Sunday: Problem Solving

Maximum 15 working spots. Unlimited auditing spots. Bridget will assist working teams with their training challenges based on the information from the questionnaire, as well as her assessment at the seminar. The goal of this seminar is to give each working team several solutions to take home. Maximum of 15 working teams. Unlimited auditing.

Continental breakfast, lunch, & snacks will be provided.
