

Greater Twin Cities Fox Terrier Club presents:

Connie Cleveland

January 25 & 26, 2014

Tails Up Dog Training Burnsville, MN

Connie is often asked to give two-day theory/problem solving seminars. She begins her seminars by spending an hour on the morning of the first day discussing with the handlers how dogs learn. She then works with the handlers and their dogs attending.

Generally there are people who are having problems with household behaviors, or are unsure how to teach attention, heeling, retrieving, and recalls. These topics become the focus of the first day. The second day she can cover a variety of problems and questions, such as go-outs, articles, drop on recalls, etc.

Brian and Connie Cleveland founded the Dog Trainers Workshop in 1990, based on more than 20-years of dog training experience.

They currently see one-hundred-and-fifty owners with their dogs each week in the obedience class program, teaching them how to have a better behaved pet, and coaching many to perform in obedience competitions. Using a balanced approach of motivation and correction, hundreds of students have earned obedience titles. The title winners from 2002 and 2003 are listed on our recent winner's page.

The Cleveland's own obedience experiences include seven Obedience Trial Champions, a UDT Maltese and a CDX Shih-tzu and Miniature Pincher. They currently share their home with three Golden Retrievers, two Labrador Retrievers, and a Shih-tzu. They are active in obedience and field trial competitions.

The Clevelands are much in demand as seminar instructors throughout the United States and have also traveled to South America and Japan to share their expertise with other training groups. They enjoy helping owners understand that dog training can make sense. Dogs can be required to work, problems can be solved, and obedience training can be fun for everybody (you and your dog) without sacrificing quality of performance.
